ARLINGTON TEMPORARY ASSISTANCE

Soroptimist members provide backpacks for Riverside kids

From staff reports

Near the beginning of the school year, members of Soroptimist International of Riverside distributed 60 backpacks filled with school supplies to children from kindergarten through high school at Arlington Temporary Assistance in Riverside.

Giving out the backpacks were Jeanne Hatcher, Ellen Clizbe and Melanie McKee, chairman of the project, according to a news release.

Many more Soroptimist members participated in the annual project, donating money, buying supplies and staying after a meeting to fill the backpacks with crayons, markers, pencils, sharpeners, pens, erasers, glue sticks, rulers, pocket folders, dividers, staplers, composition books and notebook paper.

- SUZE ORMAN

As the holiday season approaches, I like to reflect on the past year and take stock of what I am thankful for.

Near the top of my list are the experiences I have enjoyed with the wonderful women of Soroptimist International of Riverside. I am so thankful for the sense of community and the "joy of achievement" I experience just being part of this group of women who are so dedicated to improving the lives of women and girls. Everyone works extremely hard on our fundraisers and service projects and we couldn't accomplish the wonderful things we accomplish without everyone's help.

I think special thanks should go to all of the committee chairs who galvanize the entire club to make certain all our efforts are successful. So, thank you, to the Chairs of SI Riverside's committees:

OCTOBER 4-5, 2019
GOLDEN WEST REGION
FALL MEETING

DELEGATES REPORT

SI Corona was the host of the 2019 District 1 Fall Meeting at SilverLakes Sports Complex in Corona. The festivities began on Friday evening, October 4th, with the annual "Chocolate, Wine and Jazz" fundraiser. Three members (President Vicki Hightower, Delegate Lynn Seccina and Secretary Melanie McKee) along with two Soroptimisters (Vicki's husband Tom Hightower and Lynn's husband Mike Mihelich) were in attendance and enjoyed tasting local wines, beers and small appetizers. There was a silent and a live auction and a band providing musical ambiance.

The meeting on Saturday, October 5th, began with each member in attendance receiving a flower headband and we were welcomed by Debra Murphy, District 1 Director. Six SI

Riverside members were in attendance: President Vicki Hightower, Vice-President Edith Gingerich, Delegates Lynn Seccina and Charlene Johnson, Secretary Melanie McKee and member Michelle Paradise.

There were Golden West Region Leadership presentations by Governor Lori Reed, Governor-Elect Laurie Moses and Treasurer Margie Burke. Cyndi Monroe and Edwina Cardenas led a fun time game of heads or tails. Lori Reed and Debra Murphy presented Club Awards and SI Riverside was the recipient of five awards:

- Live Your Dream Education & Training Award Participation Certificate
- Recognition for Reaching the Club Giving Dreamer's Level
- Recognition for Outstanding Membership Performance in the Diamond Campaign
- Dream It Be It Career Support for Girls Participation Certificate
- Recognition for Increasing SIA's Collective Impact

There were Pillar Presentations involving Dream It Be It, Live Your Dream, Membership and Fundraising. Linda Poindexter, SI Yucca Valley presented a handout about Public Awareness, including tips for Instagram Business Accounts and other social media avenues.

Our keynote speaker during lunch was Michael Hestrin, District Attorney for Riverside County. He presented an eye-opening power point presentation concerning the dangerous apps that are becoming more prevalent in our ever-increasing web-based society and what can be done to insure our children do not fall prey to these heinous schemes. The Power Point presentation will be made available on the Golden West Region website.

There was a panel presentation titled "Be-YOU-tiful", facilitated by Kristin Barbarossa, SI Corona. Presenters were Adrianna Showalter, Support Sisterz, Liz Cahn-Castruita, West Coast Media and Michelle Broad, Well Women Network. A handout about self care was distributed, which would be suitable for inclusion in our Dream It Be It backpacks.

The bid to host Fall Meeting 2020 went to SI Chino Valley.

INSPIRE LIFE SKILLS
TRAINING

Message from
Inspire Life Skills
Training

You helped us exceed our goal of raising $100,000 at our 14th annual "Make a Difference" Gala. The funds will be used for ongoing housing and supportive programs, hiring a new part-time therapist and starting a new Inspired Scholars program for former foster youth who are already attending four year universities. Thank you to everyone who generously donated!

Inspire Life Skills Training provides supportive housing for former foster and homeless youth. The residents have a safe place to live as long as they are seeking an education whether at a technical school or at a college. SI Riverside adopted the Luther House in Riverside in 2016 and has continued over the years to provide little extras to help the young ladies in their educational journey such as household supplies, hot meals, groceries, gift cards, holiday baskets and letters of encouragement.

Ideas for the Holidays

The holidays are quickly approaching. Inspire is grateful to have such wonderful groups that are doing a fantastic job of reminding the youth of how much they are cared for.

The students love the little goodies during the holidays and also the home cooked meals. Pantry items and toiletries are also very much appreciated. In the past groups have done the following activities that have been a hit:

- Dropped off Pumpkins to Carve
- Halloween Candy and Cards
- Thanksgiving Baskets
- Cookie Decoration
- Christmas Tree Decorating
- Hanging up Christmas Lights
- Christmas Caroling
- Christmas Stockings
- Hot Chocolate Gift Basket
- Movie Night Gift Basket
- Home Made Pizza Basket
- Finals Week Motivational Basket

ERLANGEN EXCHANGE
"MENTORING FOR YOUNG WOMEN"

Soroptimist International of Riverside's "Mentoring for Young Women" exchange student sent by our Friendship Link, SI Erlangen, Germany, is Resi Langer who visited us from September 20th through October 4th.

Resi just graduated from college with a degree in psychology and will start her Masters Degree program after she returns from her visit to Riverside. Resi is 21 years old and had previously been to Riverside when she was in high school on a Student Exchange summer program with the city of Riverside.

The first half of Resi's visit was highlighted in last month's newsletter. In this newsletter, her adventures in Riverside continue.

Saturday, September 28 to Sunday, September 29

Brianna Bern, the exchange student we sent to Erlangen, Germany, in 2018, spent the weekend with Resi. They went to the local Drive In on Friday night to see a movie. Resi wanted to see Los Angeles and Hollywood so on Saturday they toured Hollywood Boulevard and visited the Museum of Illusions with lunch and dinner at the beach. On Sunday Brianna took Resi to Sandals Church then returned her to the home of Paula McCroskey's, Resi's hostess for the week.

Monday, September 30

Resi visited Riverside City Hall to meet with Mayor Rusty Bailey and Mayor Office Intern Maryam Schotz. Maryam is also from Erlangen, Germany, and it turns out that she grew up in Erlangen only a few miles from where Resi lived. SI Riverside member Paula McCroskey (who is hosting Resi in her home this week), Exchange Program Chair Jeanne Hatcher, Resi, Maryam and Mayor Bailey had lunch together at the Mission Inn. In the afternoon Resi was taken on a tour of downtown Riverside. Resi finished out the busy day with a lovely dinner at the home of SI Riverside member Jill Borth and her family.

Tuesday, October 1

Resi visited Riverside City College and met with Dr. Scott Brown, Counselor and Learning Disabilities Specialist at RCC's Disability Resource Center. In the evening she relaxed in SI Riverside member Paula McCroskey's pool and spa.

Wednesday, October 2

Resi had lunch at Tio's Tacos and "spread her wings" in their amazing folk art display. SI Riverside member Ellen Clizbe then took Resi to Redlands to spend the afternoon with Rob Clizbe at Christian Counseling Services where she learned about parent-child interactive therapy and eye movement, desensitization and reprocessing. She then had dinner at the beautiful home of Ellen Clizbe and her husband Jim along with SI Riverside members Chris Deviny and Carolyn Kegarice.

Thursday, October 3

Resi met with Life Coach Mary Ann Hillman in the morning. In the afternoon Resi spent the time relaxing and packing for her trip home to Germany the following day. In the evening, members of SI Riverside held a catered Farewell Dinner for Resi with many Soroptimist members in attendance in the beautiful backyard of member Paula McCroskey. It was a lovely way for Resi to visit again with the various members who took part in her activities during the previous two weeks and to meet other SI Riverside members. It was a whirlwind two weeks for Resi and SI Riverside members had a wonderful time making sure her stay with us was memorable.

Thursday, October 3

Resi traveled to LAX with Exchange Program Chair Jeanne Hatcher and members Ellen Clizbe and Chris Deviny and flew home to Erlangen, Germany, after two busy weeks in Riverside.

A few days later, Resi posted on SI Riverside's Facebook page:

"Thank you all so much! I had the most wonderful time in Riverside. I still can't believe that I was able to experience so many things in such a short time and that I met so many warm, welcoming, friendly people. Thanks to everyone who took the time to host me, show me around, invite me for dinner, arrange part of the program for me, etc. I really enjoyed every minute of my stay and I am forever grateful for this unique opportunity! I send you all the love from Germany."

VIRTUAL BUSINESS MEETINGS

SI Riverside has begun to hold virtual business meetings so members who cannot physically attend the meeting can join in on their computers, tablets and smart phones.

Zoom is a web-based video conferencing app that allows users to meet online, with or without video. Zoom users can choose to record sessions, collaborate on projects and share or annotate on one another's screens, all with one easy-to-use platform.

Just download the Zoom App onto your computer, tablet or smart phone and set up your account. An email invitation to the business meeting will be sent out to members before the meeting is to begin. Click on the link and you will join the meeting. It's that simple.

We're still figuring out a few bugs but it looks like virtual meetings will work out wonderfully for members who can't attend our business meetings.

SOLT Soroptimist Orientation and Leadership Training

Leadership Tip: Public Speaking

When people hear the words public speaking, they most likely think about someone in the front of a room, up on a stage and making a long presentation. However, public speaking takes on many forms and we may be speaking in public more often than we think. For example, within your club you may be giving a report during a meeting, leading a Dream It, Be It session, talking to prospective members about the benefits of joining or even leading an auction during a fundraiser.

Being a leader within Soroptimist, you will often be tapped for information and for your expertise. You may be given advance notice or you may even be put on the spot at times. That is why it is so important to improve upon and practice our speaking skills. To do that, review the following tips and try putting them into practice. They will help build your confidence and help put you more at ease when you step in front of a crowd.

Use your nerves to your advantage:

Cited as one of the greatest fears people have, just the thought of public speaking can make you sweat and develop an uneasy feeling in your stomach. This is normal. Our brains can perceive physical or psychological stress and the adrenaline starts pumping. Embrace this energy to show your passion, to vary your inflection and move around the room.

Get personal:

Share stories about yourself (or someone you know) when public speaking. This is especially a great way to kick off a presentation because:

1. You can grab the audience's attention with a true story.
2. You'll be able to easily convey a personal experience (having lived through it).
3. Listeners will be able to empathize with what you are saying and will want to hear more.

Keep it simple:

Don't be tempted to use big words or complicated definitions in order to impress your audience. Speak plainly and to the point. If you trip up over an 8-syllable word. it's not pretty. For example, try to say "intellectualization" a few times. Does it roll off the tongue? Now imagine including it in a speech you are giving. Choose words you and your listeners can easily say and understand.

Mistakes will happen:

Surprise! No one is perfect! Even the most polished of speakers can and will make mistakes. We are all human, so don't be so hard on yourself. You may lose your place when referring to your notes. Someone may interject a question and throw you off track. If you make a gaffe, admit it, own it and move on. Errors are humanizing and you'll appear more relatable.

Practice even though it won't make you perfect:

Rehearse your speech not once, not twice, but as much as you can. Do it in front of a mirror, a friend or even your family pet. This will help you see what parts you are stumbling on or realize content that just doesn't work. Keep in mind, even practicing over and over won't make you perfect. Mistakes will happen but you will be better prepared to recover gracefully.

Start and end with a bang:

Finally, you want to grab the audience's attention right at the start and help them walk away with the key take aways at the end of your presentation. In the beginning, that could mean sharing a personal story or relaying a startling statistic related to your subject matter. At the end, the final message you give is what people will remember the most. Try summarizing the key points enthusiastically, giving the audience a call to action, or use an inspirational quote that ties in directly to your subject.

Take these tips to heart when you are called upon or volunteer to speak in front of a group. They can help improve your public speaking skills so you will be ready to lead your next club meeting or report out to the delegates at a Soroptimist region conference. In addition, you can apply these public speaking skills in your professional life during meetings or presentations at work or in other civic and volunteer engagements in your community. By being able to stand up in front of an audience and clearly communicate your message, you'll gain confidence and earn respect and you'll be able to spread the word more effectively about our mission to improve the lives of women and girls who face obstacles such as poverty, violence and teen pregnancy.
